

Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Dental Society

The Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Dental Society (SCAVDS) at St. George's University is committed to advancing the knowledge, education, and awareness of veterinary dentistry among veterinarians, veterinary students, and the public. SCAVDS increases awareness of the importance of this facet in animal medicine through education and programming.