

Post Baccalaurate Program

This is a one-year pathway beginning in the Spring, that is designed to help students improve or acquire the relevant science background before entry into the 4-Year MD program. Students must pass all the prerequisites before progressing into the subsequent term. The program is intensive in the sciences and includes a comprehensive exam at the end of each term.