

Pre-Clinical Sciences Examinations

In addition to the regularly scheduled examinations for each course, there are four other types of examinations in the Pre-clinical Sciences program.

If a student receives an "F" grade or does not fulfill the required GPA, the CAPPS decides whether the student can repeat the course(s) and stay in the program until the required GPA is met.