

Absenteeism or Lateness to Practical Clinical Skills Assessments

Any student who misses a clinical skills assessment without a valid excuse must take a completion examination and will lose points associated with the activity. Additionally, they are subject to loss of professionalism points, as outlined in the Course Syllabus.