

Make-Up Examination

Make-up Examinations are examinations offered to students who have failed a course of 4 credits or less. Currently this applies to PATH500. Term 5 students who fail PATH500 will be issued an "EP" (exam pending) status. See Failing Grades: Course of four credits or less section for implications associated with failing a Make-up Examination.