

Basic Sciences Completion Examinations

All Basic Sciences Completion Examinations are scheduled after the last scheduled regular class examination within approximately one week. To adequately accommodate medical self-excuses, the completion examination of the last written course examination should be scheduled no less than 7 days after the originally scheduled examination.