

Excused Absences from Exams

In very limited circumstances, an excused absence from examinations may be granted to students. If the absence is excused, then the student receives an "I" for the exam grade and is required to take the Completion Examination at its next scheduled time, as outlined in the master schedule.