

Alternative Pathways

During post examination Academic Advising meetings, students not likely to achieve performance standards may be offered the option to join the Interactive Team Instruction (ITI) delivery of the MD program or to opt for the Credit Remediation (CR) option. The ITI is designed to offer students with additional academic support to better equip them to achieve performance standards. Those who, despite all available support, are not likely to achieve standards may require the CR option.