

Failing Grades

A failing grade ("F") is defined as a final course grade of less than the minimum passing grade established for each term. If this is the student's first attempt at a course, there are two possible consequences of a failing grade: continue on MAS with the conditions or recommendation for dismissal.