

Academic Standard – Qualitative Measure

Courses are graded on a pass/fail basis and a mean percentage is not used as a measure of progress. The academic standard is measured both for the evaluation period (the academic term or annually) and cumulatively.