

CC – Continuing Credit

A Continuing Credit (CC) is given when course requirements are not completed within the term. The Course Director submits CC grades for the course that have not been completed during the term. Students will have a “CC” on their transcript until that course is completed and the final grade is assigned by the Course Director.