

NG – No Grade

A No Grade (NG) may be given if no final grade is submitted to the Office of the University Registrar by the Instructor for a registered course, at the end of the term.

Neither the Committee for Satisfactory Academic Progress and Professional Standards nor the Appeals Panel hears individual course or examination grade disputes. Students who wish to contest an examination or course grade should consult the Course Director. If the matter remains unresolved after discussion with the Course Director, students may raise the issue with the Chair of the student's Supervisory Committee, and if there is no resolution, this issue can be taken to the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies.
