

PHYS 201 : General Physics I

This course consists basically of linear kinematics, works, power and energy, momentum, and a brief introduction to heat, thermodynamics, and sound. This course is a noncalculus course designed to enable students to understand the basic principles of mechanics, heat, and sound.

Core Course

Credits 4