

LAMS 542 : Professional Development II

This course is the second of six courses within the curriculum focused on professional development. Through experiential learning methods, students will be exposed to topics and skills related to personal development, self care, ethics, and animal welfare, communication skills, business and financial literacy, and evidence based veterinary medicine.

Core Course

Credits 2