

VSGP 834 : Advanced Veterinary Neuroanatomy

An in-depth gross, histological and histochemical study of selected parts of the nervous system of some domestic mammals and birds, with a significant bent to evolutionary pressures and clinical neurobiology, will be provided through didactic, laboratory hands-on sessions as well as term papers.

Core Course

Credits 2