

ACCT 401 : Cost Accounting

This course examines in depth cost analysis and product costing. The emphasis is to understand the information requirements of both internal and external users of the financial statements and how they are prepared.

Core Course