

BUSI 409 : Strategic Management

The course examines the practice, methodology, and theory of business strategy. Lectures, discussions, readings, and cases are used to develop ways of perceiving specific environmental opportunities and company capabilities, which are then integrated in setting strategy.

Core Course