

BUSI 411 : International Finance

This is an intensive course which encompasses the theory and application of the principles and practices of investing in securities and also introduces students to global financial markets and operation of multinational firms. There are two main sections: BUSI 320 – International Business Law and BUSI 327 – International Trade Regulations.

Core Course