COMP 410 : IT Service Learning

This course is designed to provide Information Technology students the opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills they would have acquired in the classroom to the community's needs Core Course