

Semester Credit Load

Normal credit loads of Full-time students are 12-15 credits per regular semester. Full-time, matriculated students are limited to a maximum of 18 credits per semester; however, with the permission of the Department Chair and the Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences, matriculated students with a grade point average of 3.50 or higher in the preceding semester may be allowed to enroll for more than 18 credits in the following semester.

Working and/or busy students are advised to adjust their credit load according to the time they have available for studying.

Non-matriculated students may take a maximum of 11 credits in any semester.

Students may not complete more than 12 credits during a Summer session.
