

FREN 102 : Introductory French II

This course is for students who have completed Introductory French I. It provides students with further information on basic structures and pronunciation, as well as the fundamentals of speaking, reading, and writing. This course meets the General Education requirements.

Core Course