

NURS 300 : Adult Health Nursing I

This course provides students with the skills and knowledge to care for adult clients and their families along the health and illness continuum. The course will be presented using mainly a system-based approach with the focus on respiratory, cardiovascular, endocrine and urinary systems.

Core Course