

SOCI 301 : The Family

This course focuses on the basic concepts, dimensions, issues, and ideas in the area of marriages, families, and intimate relationships in various societies. Tools for an ongoing process of observation, understanding, and analysis of intimate relationships, marital, and family systems, and organizations are included.

Core Course