

PCLN 400 : Charter Foundation Course

Student must have a good command of the English language and be computer literate be able to actively participate in all activities required in the program. The program requires skills in communication, problem solving, and an ability to adapt and function efficiently when faced with challenging circumstances (workload, environment, stress, etc). Students should have a working knowledge in the following subject areas Organic chemistry, General chemistry, Human biology, Maths. The course involves five major modules offered in three blocks. No course substitution is allowed.

Block 1 (3 weeks)

Module 1. Molecular Biology

Module 2. Introduction to Psychopathology

Block 2 (5 weeks)

Module 3. Human anatomy

Module 4. Biochemistry

Block 3 (4 weeks)

Module 5. Human Physiology

Requirements : 80 % overall pass, GPA of 3.0 or better, 75% Pass in PCSCE, meets standard for admission and professional conduct.

Teaching requirements : Daily lectures synchronous/asynchronous lectures Monday - Friday between the hours of 11am -2pm, with a duration of 75 mins and Lab/Small group sessions of 110 mins between the hours of 3:30 pm-5:30pm.

Core Course