

SGU Email

The SGU assigned email accounts are the official means of communication between students and the University. Students should ensure that their password remains secure and must not be shared with others. Students are required to check their SGU email accounts frequently, as important student information will be emailed there. Any information disseminated via the students' SGU email account will be the responsibility of the student whether or not they claim to have actually sent the email