

Financial Obligations

All students are responsible for settling any financial obligations to the University before registering for a new term. Financial clearance from the Office of Student Finances is required for check-in.