

Late Payment Penalties

Late payment penalties are assigned from the designated due date at a rate of 18% per annum on any unpaid balance. Students are not considered to be students in good standing if they have any unpaid balances. Students will not receive any University services or records until their good standing status is restored. These include transcripts, diplomas, bona fide student letters, and letters of recommendation.