

Exams on the Computer

The following guidelines supplement the general guidelines outlined in the University Examination Policies and Procedures in the SGU Student Manual. Each examinee is responsible for reviewing and adhering to these policies.

All SOM and SVM examinations will be offered only in the computer-based format. There will be no paper alternative.