

Grace Period

All SGU staff, faculty and students can use the permit from the prior semester until the last day of the first month of the new academic term. Parking must be in the appropriate designated area according to the type of permit.