

Assistant Dean of Research

The assistant dean of research reports to the Dean of the School of Medicine and assists with the implementation of research and scholarship strategic plans to support a culture of active scholarship, oversees research capacity and activities, and identifies opportunities for and encourages collaboration and interdisciplinary research activities within the School of Medicine.