

Assistant Dean for Curriculum

The assistant dean for curriculum reports to the senior associate dean of basic sciences and assists with the management and administration of the basic sciences academic programs. The assistant dean's specific assignments include supervision of basic science courses; curriculum and assessment development; liaison with the Student Government Association relating to academic issues and chairing of the Basic Sciences Curriculum Subcommittee.