

Clinical Council US

The Clinical Council consists of the DMEs from affiliated hospitals, all clinical chairs and associate chairs, and all assistant and associate deans. The Clinical Council meets 6 times a year and is chaired by the Dean Emeritus of the SOM. The Clinical Council is an advisory body to the senior associate dean of clinical studies regarding the clinical program. It also discusses non-curricular issues including student advising, the learning environment, and faculty development.