

Clinical Council UK

The Clinical Council UK is chaired by the dean of clinical studies (UK) and consists of the associate chairs of the clinical departments and the DMEs in the UK. This council meets at least twice per year to discuss all relevant issues regarding the clinical years in the UK. The UK Clinical Council is an advisory body to the senior associate dean of clinical studies regarding the UK clinical program.