

Supplemental Academic Support Committee (SASSC)

The SASSC reports to the senior associate dean of basic sciences and is responsible for evaluating and monitoring the supplemental programs and activities that are targeted at 4-year MD students, but that do not contribute credit hours for the MD program. The committee defines and guides the supplemental activity opportunities for the SOM students in support of the 4-year curriculum.