

Transferring to Another Track

Faculty will apply for and be appointed to a position that has a defined track, or in some cases, will chose in consultation with their Chair of Department (for those who held an appointment prior to the implementation of the track system). Changes of track are permitted based on a recommendation of the faculty member's chair of department to the relevant senior associate dean and the senior associate dean's subsequent approval.