

Track Appointments Process

The SOM formally appoints all faculty, including faculty at affiliated hospitals, who teach students in the clinical years (i.e., affiliate clinical faculty). Two factors determine faculty rank. The first is the academic qualifications as listed under section in the Appointments and Promotions Criteria. The second is their contributions to clinical teaching as specific for their designated track. The rank is determined by the Faculty Affairs Subcommittee for Promotions (FSAP).