

Scope

This policy applies to faculty, staff, departments, programs and recognized University organizations and clubs. This policy applies to all online material made available via standard web protocols that represent an official unit or activity of the University, are hosted on University resources, or bear marks, logos, or symbols that might imply endorsement by the University regardless of where they are hosted.