

General

The following By-laws govern the organization and procedures of the Committee for Academic Progress and Professional Standards (CAPPS) for St. George's University School of Medicine. The CAPPS is chaired by the dean of academic affairs and is an appellate committee of faculty.