

General

The following Bylaws govern the organization and procedures of the FSSC and its related ad hoc subcommittees at St. George's University School of Medicine (SOM). The FSSC is a faculty-driven committee under the senate with a shared governance and with appointed faculty and representative administrators responsible for effecting selection and placement of applicants in light of the mission statement of SOM.