

Authority

The APRC is a delegated committee reporting to the dean of the School of Medicine and has accountability for oversight of a list of activities as outlined in the Charges section. Additional ad hoc subcommittees may be formed to address specific aspects of the graduation assessment process and will report to the APRC.