

Matters before the Judiciary Board

Matters before the Judiciary Board originate from complaints or allegations brought or referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or the Office of Judicial Affairs. Any student, faculty, or staff member may make a complaint and/or report of a violation of the Honor Code, Code of Conduct, University Policy, protocol, Manual, regulation, University, program or course requirements or professionalism to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or Office of Judicial Affairs. Any matter which for which a formal disciplinary hearing measures may be considered not initially raised to the Office of Judicial Affairs shall be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs. After consultation and investigation, the Judicial Officer will determine whether a matter should proceed to hearing. In such event, the Judicial Officer will issue a Notice of Hearing and provide the student with written notice of the charges and allegations.

The Judiciary Board, through its Panel presides over disciplinary hearings on disciplinary cases brought by the Office of Judicial Affairs.