

Accreditations and Approvals

- St. George's University School of Veterinary Medicine Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) program earned full accreditation in September 2018 from the American Veterinary Medical Association Council on Education (AVMA COE).
- St. George's University School of Veterinary Medicine Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) program Global Veterinary Health Track (GVH) earned full accreditation in September 2019 from the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS).
- St. George's University Master of Public Health program is only one of a few non-US programs to receive accreditation by the US Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH). DVM students can complete a joint DVM/MPH, adding public health to their veterinary knowledge.
- The Government of Grenada continued the accreditation of St. George's University School of Veterinary Medicine in 2013. The School of Veterinary Medicine is fully authorized by the Government of Grenada to confer the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree upon those candidates who successfully complete its academic requirements.
- St. George's University is recognized by the US Department of Education to administer student loans for qualified US students. Creditworthy borrowers may borrow up to the cost of attendance.