

Dress Code Policy

Students attending work placements, laboratories, and veterinary or hospital clinics must dress in a professional manner appropriate to the teaching or professional facility.

All students who do not adhere to an appropriate dress code may face disciplinary action.

Specific dress code requirements may be imposed within the Schools or Programs of the University, based upon health and safety requirements.