

Attendance

Attendance refers to a quantitative (numeric) measure of how long a student has been present at a required, synchronous class session, whether that session is in-person or online. Although attendance includes both frequency and duration, only frequency is captured in this policy. Students are, however, expected to attend every class, for the duration of the class.