

CHEM 125 : General Chemistry II Lab

This course introduces students to the basic practical and safety techniques required for a chemistry laboratory. It allows students to apply the scientific process and develop critical analytical and technical skills through experiments on gas laws, properties of solutions; chemical kinetics and chemical equilibrium; acid-base equilibria; oxidation-reduction reactions.

Core Course

Credits 1