

LAMS 501 : Veterinary Physical Diagnosis II

This course is intended to introduce 3rd term veterinary students to the practice of the physical diagnostic skills of an 'entry level' veterinarian. The course consists of practical lectures, hands-on laboratories, along with case-based modules. The laboratory exercises are tailored to build upon the skills learned in LAMS 502 Clinical Orientation and incorporate material previously learned in the didactic science course.

Core Course

Credits 1