

LAMS 533 : Professional Veterinary Development VI

This course is the sixth of 6 courses within the curriculum focused on professional development. Through experiential learning methods, students will be exposed to topics and skills related to personal development, self-care, ethics and animal welfare, communication skills, business and financial literacy .

Core Course

Credits 2