

NURS 217 : Nursing Practicum II

This course is designed to offer opportunities to students to consolidate experiences in the clinical areas. This course focuses on the clinical aspects of care and the domains of nursing practice. The student will complete the rotation through various areas including specialties such as ophthalmology and outpatient clinics as well as generalized medical or surgical areas.

Core Course